

Bentley revvs up to inspire visitors at Salon des Grandes Compilations

Matching the prestige and exclusivity of the premium Grandes Compilations Horlogerie Exhibition in the Middle East, Bentley Motors will be making its emphatic presence at this year's Salon des Grandes Compilations Abu Dhabi being held between 25th and 29th October.

Bentley is synonymous with the finest luxury performance cars in the world and will be celebrating its centenary year in 2019. Founded by Walter Owen Bentley in 1919 "To build a fast car, a good car, the best in its class." The company continues to be 'endowed with tradition and inspired by the future'. True to its timeless heritage Bentley offers, in addition to its prized range of premium cars, a specialized collection of men's accessories and, over and above these, a selection of the most exquisite horological masterpieces.
